HERITAGE CENTERS OFFERS WNY NEW ADA TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

(BUFFALO, NY, January 15, 2009) – Heritage Centers has a new community training opportunity, in cooperation with Cornell University, addressing the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

This training educates businesses, service organizations, employees, disability professionals, as well as individuals with disabilities, to work successfully within the ADA requirements, as today's workforce and its demands grow ever more diverse.

Training programs include:

1. Disability Awareness: Understanding the Americans with Disabilities Act
2. Getting Hired and Moving Ahead in a Job When Working with a Disability
3. Tapping into Talent
4. Serving Customers with Disabilities
5. About Hidden Disabilities
6. Reaching Individuals with Disabilities: Accessibility in Federal, State or Municipal Entities
7. Reaching Individuals with Disabilities: Accessibility in Private or Commercial Business
8. Accessible Technology in the Workplace
9. Accessible Web Sites: Everyone Benefits

All training sessions are local, interactive and Heritage Centers facilitators have been professionally trained and approved by the DBTAC-Northeast ADA Trainer Network at Cornell University.

If you are interested in learning more about these programs, the cost of the sessions, how it can benefit you or your workforce, please call Heritage Centers Training Department directly at: 716-833-8603 ext. 346 or ext. 317.

Heritage Centers is a local non-profit that employs over 900 people and serves more than 3,000 individuals with disabilities (and their families) each year. Individualized services include, but are not limited to: early intervention, education, residential, vocational, service coordination, legal and advocacy programming.
